Central Nebraska Housing Conference

CNHD announces the 2011 Central Nebraska Housing Conference scheduled for Wednesday, April 20, 2011, in Ord, Nebraska.

This year's theme is: "New Housing Development for Rural Communities—It's Not a Race, It's a Marathon...."

Topics for this year's conference include:

- Successful Housing Begins With Community Partnerships
- Justifying Your Housing Needs to Funders
- Strategic Planning Assistance
- Building New Homes in a Community, One House at a Time
- Rental Housing Programs
- Energy Efficient Building

Keynote speaker for this year's conference will be Lance Hedquist, South Sioux City, Nebraska, City Administrator. Lance is recognized as a leader and innovator in the tri-state area and across Nebraska for his foresightedness to lead one of the most progressive cities in the state. Lance will share his expertise in building community partnerships to successfully accomplish housing and economic development.

Other speakers will include: Ted Simpson, NIFA; Caleb Pollard, Ord Area Chamber and Valley County Economic Development; David Sawyer, Burwell Economic Development; Korla Keller, City of Bassett; Linda Anders, USDA Multi-Family Housing; and Gene Knaggs, Certified HERS Energy Rater.

Cost to attend is just $10 per person. Conference brochures are now being mailed out. We hope you'll register to participate in this year's conference and learn how your community can prepare for new housing development.

CNHD Connects Through Social Media
