State's 2014 Annual Action Plan for Grants Announced

Each year the State of Nebraska announces its Annual Action Plan for Housing, Community, Planning and Business-related grant opportunities. December 10th the State's Annual Action Plan will be available on their website at www.neded.org/community/grants/documentslibrary-a-forms/annual-action-plan, AND, video conferences will be held that day in Norfolk, North Platte, Lincoln and Kearney from 3-5 pm to learn more about funding opportunities. CNHD will be participating on your behalf to learn what opportunities are available to communities and the region.

If your community is interested in applying for a grant to improve housing opportunities for your residents, NOW is the time to start the process. Housing plans and grant applications take time, so contact us soon. Grant applications are due in the Spring or Summer of 2014. To get started, contact Judy Petersen at 402-340-0106, or email: judy@cnhdhome.org

CNHD Recognizes NIFA with 2013 Partner Award

At the Central Nebraska Housing Conference on November 7th, CNHD recognized NIFA (Nebraska Investment Finance Authority), with the CNHD 2013 Partner Award (Steve Perigrine, NIFA Communications Director accepts the award).

NIFA has been both a financial supporter and a partner for the Central Nebraska region in numerous ways, including the funding of several housing studies and comprehensive plans for counties and communities, including: Custer County, Holt County, Howard County, Brown County, Rock County, Keya Paha County, City of Loup City, City of Aurora, and City of Valentine.

CNHD was selected to receive NIFA Outreach Partnership financial and technical support, and NIFA has been an annual sponsor for the Annual Central Nebraska Housing Conference.

Also, NIFA has sought the input of CNHD representatives regarding the housing needs of Rural Nebraska communities, and inducted CNHD into the Housing Hall of Fame.
