2012 Housing Conference Scheduled for November 1st

The Central Nebraska Housing Developers (CNHD) are proud to announce our 2012 Central Nebraska Housing Conference scheduled for Thursday, November 1, in Wolbach, Nebraska. This year's theme is: "Revitalizing Your Community."

The housing conference will be held at the new Wolbach Community Center, 4th and Center Avenue. Wolbach is located in Greeley County, just 3 miles off of Hwy 281.

Topics for this year's conference include:

- ◆ Creative Ideas to Revitalize Your Community
- ◆ Communities Investing in Themselves
- ◆ Identifying a Community's Housing Needs
- ◆ Recruiting Families to Your Community
- ◆ Demolition and Nuisance Code Enforcement
- ◆ Rental Housing Program.

This year's speakers will be

- ◆ Chris Anderson, Central City Administrator
- ◆ Cliff Mesner, Central City Investment Club
- ◆ Nicole Sedlacek, Holt County Economic Development Director
- ◆ Dave Willis, USDA Multi-Family Housing Specialist
- ◆ Judy Petersen, CNHD Director

Cost to attend is still just $10 per person. Conference brochures have been mailed out to counties, communities, and housing stakeholders in the region. We hope you'll register to participate in this year's conference, so you can learn from other Central Nebraska leaders about how they are working to revitalize their communities.

To access information about the conference, and the conference registration form, visit the CNHD website at www.cnhdhome.org and click on the "Housing Conference" link. Or, you may contact Judy Petersen, CNHD Executive Director, at 402-340-0106 or email at judy@cnhdhome.org
